IUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Chats of Miss Lea's Engagement to Mr. Woodson Hancock, of Virginia-She Sees Striking Frock at Cape May

T CAN'T say that many of us were surprised to hear of Katharine Lea's engagement to Woody Hancock, as he has been devoted for some time. But that does not make it any the less interesting or exciting. And I, for one, offer them both my heartiest congratulations.

Katharine is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Lea, who have that beautiful place. West Thorpe Farm, beautiful place. West Thorpe Farm, out at Devon. I remember the house was just finished before Katharine came out, and so her tea was given there, and it was simply lovely. She is the only daughter of Mr. Lea's geond marriage, his other daughter, Mrs. Percy Hudson, of New York, having been the child of his first wife. The present Mrs. Lea. Katharine's mother, is prominent in civic affairs, Daving the war she was in charge of Mrs. Katharine Rogers, who have the provided the child of his first wife. The present Mrs. Lea. Katharine's mother, is prominent in civic affairs, Daving the war she was in charge of Cotober I.

came that Jas could get twenty-four hours leave before sailing, or something of the kind, and he wanted to be married. So she agreed, and, of course, word was sent to the Leas-that she could not attend the luncheon, as she was busily buying a wedding frock.

What did Katharine Lea do but gather the other luncheon guests to-gether, and after the "eats" they descended upon the Lea hothouses descended upon the Len hothouses and grounds and gathered all they could carry. Then in motors to old St. David's Church at Devon with their spoils, and when the little bride entered the church that late afternoon she found a bower of flowers awaiting her.

There won't be occasion, so far as we can say, for such a demonstra-tion for Katharine Lea's wedding day, but I am sure all her friends will wish for opportunities to show how much they think of her and her un-selfish character. No. Woodson Hancock is not a brother of Katharine Hancock Smith, so there was no re-mantic reason for doing this. It was just because she's a peach of a girl, and wanted her friend to have a beautiful floral picture to remember for that sweet little sad weading. Fortunately, Jas Smith came home safe from the war, and he and his wife live out at Stenton avenue and Mer-maid lane in Chestnut Hill. So maid lane in Chestnut Hill. So there's nothing sad for them now. Woolson Hancock is well known here and extremely well liked. He is the son of Mr. Frank Hancock, of Charlottesville, Va., and came up to attend college. He is well liked in the younger set, and has been going to all the balls and parties. No date has been set for the welding, but it is not likely they will wait till spring Perhaps it will be a late fall wedding.

Mr. Robert Sullivan. of 1714 Morris street, will spend this week-end at the summer home of his parents in Wild-

WHAT striking frocks Mrs. Algy Clapp wears these days down at Cape May! You know she and Algy have a outage there and Nancy is certainly one attractive looking person. She was on the beach one afternoon recently with her little daughter Clara. who is about two years old and is a perfeet lamb with her gold-brown curls.

Nancy's dress was of rose-colored heavy canton crepe and the skirt had inset panels of white on either side and white pearl buttons down the front of the frock. Her hat was rose-colored crepe to match the dress, and she wore gray stockings and slippers. Speaking of Clara Clapp reminds me of another little girl, wee Lytendale Caner, who was playing near her. She had a small ted hat and a ginzham freek of tiny red and white checks and little bloomof the same material peeping below

The children at Cape May are always wonderful to me. You see, they usually spend the whole season there, and they get the most wonderful brown burn and sun-kis-ed hair I have ever seen. just love to trot down along the sand of an afternoon to watch them.

BILLIE is five, but he's not too and fine feeling, if he does tease at times. The other day nuntie was helphim and his sister Betsy to dress for breakfast. Betsy is a pit older, but omehow Billy was ready to wash first, dear; you go in and wash your face and hands and then auntie will put on Jour clean suit.

old dexterity was soon out, but instead of running for his suit he put his head down on the hed and auntite heard him sobbing. "Why, Billie," said she, what is the matter?" And said the little was the matter?" little man. I f-feel so mean 'cause I made Betsy wait again to get washed today, cause I did it on purpose yes-terday. NANCY WYNNE.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

An interesting engagement announced today is that of Miss Lucile Perk Carter, daughter of Mr. William E. Carter and of Mrs. George Brooke, (formerly Mrs. Carter, to Mr. Samuel J. Reeves, of Phoenix Park Phoenixvills. Miss Carter returned this week from a visit of six weeks with her father at Newport Mr. Reeves, in brother of Miss Mary Reeves and Mr. William H. Reeves, Jr., of Sedgley Farm. Phoenixville.

Miss Caroline V. Remak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus Remak and who is a student at Bryn Mawr, will be ina tea given by her parents

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Knowles, of chemnut Hill, have decided upon Tues-day afternoon October 16, for the tea which they will give to introduce their daughter, Miss Namey Knowles.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitz-Eugene Newbold, who are viriting Mrs. Newbold's parents. Senator and Mrs. George Wharton Pepper, in Northeast Harbor, Me, will return to this city about Sep-tember i.

Mrs. Alexander Brinton Coxe will spend the early fall at Green Hill Farms Hotel, Overbrook.

Miss Mary P. W. Porcher has re-turned to Chestnut Hill after having soul the last few weeks as the guest Miss Margaret Blaney at Ironbound.

Mrs. John I. Rogers and her daughter. Mies Katharine Rogers, who have been occupying their cuttage at Cape May since June, will return to the Coronado October 1.

The present Mrs. Lea. Katharine's mother, is prominent in civic affairs. During the war she was in charge of one of the food-saving divisions, and traveled all over the State addressing numbers of women on the subject and doing a great deal of good.

Katharine is a most attractive girl and a most devoted friend. I remember the time Katharine Hancock and Jas Smith were married (as they were on a day's notice during the war); she did such a lovely thing. There was a luncheon at the Leasthat day, and Katharine Hancock was to be one of the guests. Well, word came that Jas cou'd get twenty-four terms of the subject and do October 1.

Mrs. Thomas R. Burns and her daughter. Wiss Constance Burns, of 451s Chestnut street, will sail for Europe early in September, where they will spend the winter traveling. Mrs. Burns' son, Mr Arthur Burns, has been for three years. Her daughter, Miss Katharine Burns, who have been occupying deir cuttage at Cape bay since June, will return to the Coronado October 1.

West Philadelphia

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. William Joseph Flood, of Washing on, D. C., for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Genevieve Marie Flood, and Dr. Lee McKinstry Bryan, of 4200 Chestnut street, Thursday, September 7, 11 o'clock, Mass in Dahlgren Chapel, Georgetown University, Washington.

Mrs. Edward Shoemaker, formerly o Chicago, has returned to her home at 5225 Walnut street after a fortnight's s'ay at Belmar and Asbury Park, N. J Mr. and Mrs. Earl K. Mueller, whose Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Mueller, whose marriage took place June 21, have returned from their wedding trip and are spending the remainder of the summer at Atlantic City. Mrs. Mueller will be remembered as Miss Melissa M. Felder, of 6036 Kingsessing avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey S. Reed, of 4301 Walnut street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter. Mrs. Reed, before her marriage last August was Miss Jean E. Campbell, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. Reed, a former track star, was graduated from Yale last June. last June

Miss Louise Elderkin, of 4536 Sun-som street, who, with her parents, is spending the summer at their cottage at Avalon, has as her guest Miss Grace Annette Farren, of New York.

North Philadelphia

Mrs. Robert L. Gibson, of 4623 North Ninth street, will entertain at dinner this evening at her home in Wildwood in honor of Mr. Gibson's birthday.

Mr. Robert Sullivan of 1714 Morris street, will spend this week-end at the summer home of his parents in Wild-

Miss Florence Gollagher, of Eight-centh and McKean streets, spent some time last week in Chelsea. Miss Mary McIntyre, of 1626 Ritner street, has returned home from a week's stay in Kirkwood,

Mr. Frank Hunt, of 1622 Ritner street, left last Saturday for an extensive trip through Niagara Falls, Canada and the Northern States.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll and family, of 2627 South Sixteenth street, are of 2627 South Sixteenth street, spending the season in Wildwood.

Mr. Ralph C. Campbell, of 1432 Jack-son street, has left for a tour through Canada and the Northern States. Miss Florence Eilis, of 2313 South Ninth street, and Miss Anna Goldstein, of 4063 Ogden street. Have returned from Haines Falls, N. V. and are now spending some time at Atlantic City.

spending some time at Atlantic City, stopping at the Ambassador Hotel. Mrs. David Vollmer, of 2221 South Seventeenth street, and Mrs. Charles Strobel, of 1606 West Susquehanna avenue, have returned home after an extended visit through the West. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Hatchel and Mr. and Mrs. William Hatchel and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Vollmer, of Cleveland, O., and Mrs. Christie Rimback, of Elyria, O.

Along the Main Line

Mrs John Langton and Miss Gertrude Langton, of Overbrook, are staying at the Chalfonte in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lanners, of Over- somewhat similar mission. so auntie suid: Betsy's not quite ready, brook, have gone to Atlantic City, to dear: tou go in and suid: Betsy's not quite ready, stay at the Ambassador.

lear; you go in and wash your face and hands and then auntie will put on Nally and Mr. Francis E. McNally, of 6389 Overbrook avenue, will leave to riorrow for Cape May to spend a week.

Carthy. Among the guests were Miss Alice Powers, Miss Mary Powers, Miss Margaret Powers, Miss Mildred Mich-ener, Miss Constance McCarthy, Miss Ursula McCarthy, Master Jack Powers, Master Walter Michener and Master David McCarthy. David McCarthy

Mr. John C. Schramm announces the marriage of his daughter, Miss Eleanor Margaretta Schramm, to Mr. Ambrose Jones Winder, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Winder, on August 21 in Germantown.

Frankford

Mrs. Jesse Hey and her daughter, Miss Margaret Hey, of 1117 Herbert. The flight was made on the concluding street, are at Wildwood for two weeks. day of the gliding competition, held in the Rhoen Mountains, near Gersfeld.

Mrs. Sallie A Keeler, of 2207 Bridge starting point, attended, has returned from Ocean Grove. N. J., and Stroudsburg, where she spent a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Wescott Bucke, of 1812 Foulkrod street, are on a motor trip through Stroudsburg and the Poconos. Mrs. C. P. Sewitt and her daughter, Miss Myrtle Sewitt, of Orthodox street, are spending several weeks at Asbury Park.

Delavan Smith Seriously III

MISS MARION REINEKE Photo by Photo-Crafters.

Mr. Albert C. Reincke announces the engagement of his daughter, Miss Marion Reincke, of 1233 North Broad street, to Mr. John P. Bretherton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bretherton, of Cynwyd. Miss Reineke is the granddaughter of Mr. William J. McMullin, with whom she is spending the summer at Cape

DR. ALFRED C. WOOD MARRIES IN PARIS

University Hospital Surgeon Takes American Teachers First of Their

MRS. A. C. WOOD

The marriage in Paris of two wellknown Philadelphia physicians-Dr. Dorothy Donnelly and Dr. Alfred C. Wood, chief of staff at the Howard to be married "somewhere in Britain" Hospital—was made known today in a telegram sent to a sister of the bride.

The couple have been for more than a month at the home of friends not far.

engaged, it was not expected that they would be married before the end of the year and that the marriage would take place here.

Dr. Donnelly sailed for Paris with Dr. Mary Sullivan, of Jersey City, on Church in that city. June 27 to engage in medical research, Dr. Wood sailed a month later on a

The bride is a graduate of the Woman's College here and served as an interne at the hospital of that institution and later at the Philadelphia General Hospital. Dr. Wood is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and a surgeon at the University Hosnital

GLIDER IS UP 3 HOURS

German Student Breaks World Record in Motorless Plane Berlin, Aug. 25. — (By A. P.)—A new record for sustained flight in a Berlin, Aug. 25.— (By A. P.)—A for some time.

new record for sustained flight in a motorless airplane was set yesterday by Herr Hentzen, student flyer of the Hanorer Technical School, when he remained in the nir more than three west, and have asked for the presidential suite. The hotel manager is in the some time.

Tomorrow, however, the Duke Talleyrand de Perigord and his Duchess, who formerly was Anna Gould, of New west, and have asked for the presidential suite. The hotel manager is in the source of the presidential suite.

The flight was made on the concluding quantary. Mr. and Mrs. Felix Toner announce the marriage of their daughter. Miss Alice Toner, to Mr. Thomas J. Rosney, on August 10. Mr. and Mrs. Rosney, after their return from a wedding trip, will be at home at 5009 Edmond street. The first two hours and ten seconds, the first two hours and ten seconds. the Rhoen Mountains, near Gersfeld, Hentzen's machine landed 350 meters

Mrs. Francia N. Robinson and her family, who have been spending the summer with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bennington and Sarragament Pier, will return to thin the family, of Dyre street, have remaining an despite squally gales fanded on the family and Mrs. September.

Mr. and Mrs. September.

VAN DER BURCH TO SAIL

Acting Consul of the Netherlands Going Abroad ean der Burch, neting consul of the Netherlands here and local passenger agent of the Holland-America Line, will sail tomorrow on the Rotterdam for a month's stay abroad. Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lewis, Jr., of publisher of the Indianapolis News, was the summer at the Brighton, Atlantic City, will return home about the middle of Esptember.

Chicago, Aug. 25.—Delayan Smith, their son, Master Dirk van der Burch, publisher of the Indianapolis News, was and Mrs. M. G. Ebbeler. Other Philagraphy will return home about the middle heart trouble at his Lake Forest sumble Reinhold Frost, Walter M. Newkirk. is accompanied by Mrs. van der Burch, Miss Mary Bowditch Hallowell, of Readville, Mass, who will be married on September 7 at Milton, Mass, to Eleanor Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mr. John Crocker will have Miss Mr. William Hart, of this city, as one of her bridesmaids.

Miss Mary F. W. Percher has re men home. Several blood transfusions are said to have been made. Mr. Remaided Frost, Walter M. Newk, are said to have Returning on the steamship Ryn-dam, which is due to dock at Hoboken tomorrow afternoon are Miss Frances Elsanor Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hart, of this city, as one of her bridesmards.

Miss Mary P. W. Porcher has returned to Chestnut Hill after having Miss Margaret Blaney at Ironbound, Miss Margaret Blaney at Ironbound, Mrs. Weller Charles Reinsford, of Mrs. Weller Charles Reinsford, of Mrs. Weller Clothier, Mrs. Walter C

TWO DARING WOMEN SCALE MT. OLYMPIA

Sex to Make the Ascent

Washington, Aug. 25 .- (By A. P.)-Miss Winong Bailey, of Seattle, and Mrs. Laurie R. Frazeur, of Chicago. have scaled all four peaks of Mount forethought. Olympia, said to be the first women known to have achieved this feat, according to a letter received from Miss Bailey by Dr. Cora Smith King, of this city, formerly of Scattle, where she founded the Mountaineers' Club of that stopped ner.

"Let that explanation wait," he said.

"The point is, that with your evidence and mine, we have Pinto by the throat.

What was that?"

its August 3 and August 5, the yeu?"

MARY BAKER TO MARRY

Wedding to Be "Somewhere in Britain," Hesitant Heiress Says McCornick's temperamental sweetheart Pinto, and probably he will drag in who has thrice left her finnee waiting at the colonel, too. Even your evidence teh church, departed for Scotland yesterday with a party of house guests that included McCornick.

Simplemental transports of the said after a moment's thought, "and if it is possible, I will keep you out of it." terday with a party of house guests that included McCormick.
Simultaneously it was announced that the young couple, after the previous delays of the hesitating bride, are finally from Abington. McCormick was invited to join the party in July and accepted with alacrity

Before the departure for the Scottish The news is a surprise to friends, outing it became known that Miss Although it was known that they were Baker, the hesitant, had given her final promise to be his bride next month.

Miss Baker's last wedding stutter -perhaps-was last January, when Chicago's smart set was left to warm its toes at the Fourth Presbyterian

DUKE OR MINT DIRECTOR. WHO GETS HOTEL SHITE?

San Francisco, Aug. 25.—The management of the Hotel St. Francis here must decide by some time tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. B. V. McCarthy, of Germantown, entertained at a children's party in honor of the seventh birth-day of their son. Master David Mc-Carthy, Among the guests were Western in the bride, her sister said today, intends to abandon her medical practice. She will live with Dr. Wood at 2035 Walnut street after they return here director of the United States Mintends of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of their servants take precedence over the director of the United States Mintends of t with a private elevator, three bedrooma dining room and a kitchen, to say nothing of a salon and servants' quarters. Just now J. F. Scobey, director of the mint and formerly ters. Just now J. F. Scobey, director of the mint and formerly a business man of San Antonio, Tex., and close friend of President Harding, is in the suite. He plans to remain in the suite for some time. tial suite. The hotel manager is in a Barnard College Girl Missing New York, Aug. 25. -A general alarm was sent out by the police yes-terday in an effort to find Hilda Micka, fifteen-year-old Barnard College sumschool girl, who disappeared from her home August 17. The hunt is being made at the request of her mother, Mrs. Irene Micka.

Why Not a TAPESTRY PIECE? IMPORTED and DOMESTIC BENCHES-CHAIR SEATS-PILLOWS-ETC. In Select Assortment (Just Received Another Shipment)

BEADS-GIFTS-WOOL

Germantown Novelty Shop Wicker Furniture B.H. Domestic Chairs, $5.50 Side Armchairs .... 7.50

St. George Chairs ..... 8.50

GLASSBEEG WICKER MFG.CO. 2018 N. Front St. Free Delivery

on each chair, $1.00 extra-have a full live of Settees Table and Floor Lamps. exce and Bird Cares).

In our Phila., Camden and suburban Stores

JACK O'JUDGMENT :-: By Edgar Wallace

"Absolutely !" said Sir Stanley

"Here, ch?" said the commissioner, some reason or other, possibly

"She's here, sir."

She nodded.

facing the first commissioner.

Who's Who in the Story

COLONEL DAN BOUNDARY, fat, coarse-grained but uncannily elever leader of a yang of crooks, hus become alarmed at receipt of a knave of clubs, signed "Jack o Judgment," after several of his explotts, all of which are subtly devised to earlich him without risking the law's penalities. He tries to disorm suspicions gathering around him by complaining to STAFFORD KING, of the London Crimlinal intelligence Force.

PINTO SILVA, a steek man about town.

Ind Intelligence Force,
PINTO SILVA, a sleek man about town, forces his attentions on an actress, who rehuffs him. She is MAISIE WHITE, daughter of Solly White, one of the gang who wishes to retire,
She is interested in Stafford. LOLLIE MARSH, a doll-faced but elever pirl, who acts as "vamp" of the blackmailing gang. "SWELL" CREWE, once a gentleman,

MY FRIEND," he breathed. "I don't know what I'm to do with credulously. rou now I've got you, but I certainly "You don't imagine that the colonel would invent that sort of thing? For am going to register your face for future reference." "No, no," said a muffled voice from close to the trouble that's coming, the behind the mask, "no, no, don't, I beg

But the mask was plucked away. and, fumbling in his pocket, Stafford produced his electric lamp and flashed it on the face of his prisoner. Then, with a cry of anazement, he stepped back—for he had looked upon the face of Maisie White!

nel, and for the first time he seems to be thoroughly rattled. Where is Miss For a moment there was silence, wither speaking. Then Stafford found "So much the better. Can you bring her in?" "Maisie!" he said in bewilderment.
"Maisie! You Jack o' Judgment?"

She did not answer. "Phew!" whistled Stafford.
Then, sitting on a trunk, he laughed.
"It is Maisie, of all people in the world. And I suspected it, too!"

The girl had covered her face with her hands and was crying softly, and he moved toward her and put his arm about her shoulder. "Darling, it is nothing very terrible.

Picase don't go on like that.

"Oh, you don't understand, you don't understand." I wanted to catch Silva. I guessed that he was coming north on one of his blackmailing trips, and I followed him. "I followed him to the bazaar," she "and then I watched him from a little eating house on the opposite side of the road. Do you know, I won-dered whether you were here, too, and I looked everywhere for you, but appar-ently there was nobody in sight when -Pinto came out with Lady Sybil, only n soldier.

"I was that soldier." said Stafford.
"I discovered where Mr. Crotin lived and came up later," she went on. "Of course, I had no very clear idea of what I was going to do, and it was only by the greatest luck that I found the window of the library open. It was the only window open," she said with a laugh. "It wasn't so much your luck as my Stafford smiled. "Now I want to tell you about Jack o' Judgment," she began, but he "Let that explanation wait." he said.

There was the sound of a shot. Miss Bailey is a teacher of Latin and Greek in a Scattle High School, and Miss Frazeur holds a like position in a Chicago High School. They reached carries one. What did he throw at

"A knife," she said, and he felt her ARY BAKER TO MARRY
MCCORMICK NEXT MONTH

A KRITE, She said, and he felt her shiver; "it just missed me. But tell me, how have we got Pinto?"
They had left the shrubbery and were walking toward the house. She stepped a little while to take off her long black clonk, and he saw that she was wearing a shirt-skirted dress beneath.

"We must compel Crotin to prose-London, Aug. 25.—Miss Mary Lan- cute," said Stefford, on Baker, Chicago heiress, Allister "With our evidence nothing can save

A woman's scream interrupted him. There's trouble there," he said, and for the house. "What is the matter?" asked Stafford, as he vaulted over the parapet. "Mr. Crotin has shot himself, sir, and the butier in ounvering tones Twelve hours later Stafford King reported to his chief, giving the details the overnight tragedy.

"Poor fellow!" said Sir Stanley. "I was afraid of it ending that way

"Did you know he was being black-miled?" asked Stafford. Sir Stanley nodded. emanated from Jack o' Judgment, who of late has started sending his com-munications to me direct, said Sir Stanley, "You can, of course, do nothing to Pinto. Your evidence isn't sufficient. What a pity you hadn't a cient. What a pity you hadn't a second witness?" He thought for a moment. "Even then it wouldn't have been sufficient unless we had Cretin to support you." Stafford cleared his throat, I have a second witness, sir." he evebrows. "Who was your second wit-

"Jack o' Judgment," said Stafford. and Sir Stanley jumped to his feet.

"Jack of Judgment?" he repeated.

What do you mean?" "Jack of Judgment was there," said

Stafford, and told the story of the remarkable appearance of that mysterious He told everything reserving the identification of "Jack" till the last.

"And then you flashed the lamp on his face." said Sir Stanley. "Well.

said Sir Stanley. who was it "Maiste White," said Stafford. "Cood Lord!

Sir Stanley walked to the window and stood booking out, his hands thrust into his pockets. Presently he turned There's a bigger mystery here than I suspected, he said. Have you asked Miss White for an explanation?" Stafford shook his head. "I thought it best to report the matter to you, sir, before I asked her to-

"To incriminate herself, ch? Well

Taste it! Every pound of Louella

Butter contains the pure rich cream from 10 quarts of milk!

perhaps you did wisely, perhaps you at tight pinch, if I wished to terrify this did not. I should imagine that her explanation is a very simple one."

"What do you mean, sir?"

"I mean," said Sir Stanley, "that unless Jack o' Judgment has the gift of appearing in two places at once, she Judgment?"

I tight pinch, if I wished to terrify this man, that was the role to assume."

Sir Stanley nodded.

"And the voice, of course, was easy."

"But how could you imitate the voice of appearing in two places at once, she Judgment?"

of appearing in two places at once, she Judgment?"

But now could you imitate the voice if you have never seen Jack o' Judgment?"

But I don't "I saw him once." She shivered a ttle. "You seem to forget, Sir Stan-But I don't understand, sir." little.

"I mean," said Sir Stanley, "that Jack o'Judgment was in the colonel's room last night, was in fact sitting by the colonel's bedside when that ley, that he rescued me from that dreadful house."
"Of course." said Sir Stanley "And you imitated him, did you?" He turned to his subordinate. "I'm He turned to his subordinate. 'I'm accepting Miss White's explanation, Stafford, and I advise you to do the gentleman awoke; and according to the statement which Colonel Boundary made to me about two hours ago in this room, warned him of his approachame. She went up to watch Silva, as understand, and took the costume ing end."

It was Stafford's turn to be astonwith her as a sort of protection. Well, Miss White, are you satisfied with your detective work?"

She smiled ruefully "I'm afraid I'm a fallure as a de-"I'm afraid you are," Sir Stanley laughed as he rose and offered his hand. There is only one real detective colonel insists upon bringing all his little chitchat to me. He asked for an interview about 10 o'clock this morning and reported to me that he had had this visitation. Moreover, the experience has had the effect of upsetting the colonal and for the first had been as the first had been as the first had been as the colonal and for the first had been as the colonal and for the first had been as the colonal and for the first had been as the colonal and for the first had been as the colonal and for the first had been as the colonal and for the first had been as the colonal and for the first had been as the colonal and the world-and that is Jack o' Judgment!

To be continued tomorrow Copyright, McClure Newspaper Syndicate

EITH'S THEATRE THE MEISTERSINGERS ELIZABETH BRICE BEN WELCH farriet Remnel & Co. Moran &

A few minutes later the girl sat COME OUT TO NATURE'S PAIRVLAND WILLOW GROVE PARK "Now, Miss White, we're going to ask you for a few facts about your masquerade," said Sir Stanley kindly. SOUSA "I understand that you appeared wearing the costume, and giving a fairly good imitation of the voice of Jack o' Judgment. Now I'm telling you before we go any further that I do not believe for one moment that you are Jack o' Judgment. Am I right?" Backrach Portrait "Perfectly true, Sir Stanler," she id. "I don't know why I did such a mad thing, except that I knew Pinto was scared of him. I got the cloak from my dress basket and made the mask myself. You see, I didn't know whether I might want it, but I thought that in

AND HIS BAND

Direction Stanley Company of Amer

NETEENTH AND MARKET GLORIA SWANSON "Her Gilded Cage"

STANTON REOPENS SEPT 2

WILLIAM "MONTE CRISTO"

WALLACE REID AND REHE DANIEL

PICTURE WORLD IS MINE MAY McAVOY THE TOP OF NEW YORK'

Karlton Mi Katherine MacDonald

PALACE 12TH AND MARKET ALACE 245 A M. 13 Henry B VICTORIA NINTH & MARKET "THE FAST MAIL"

ARCADIA 16TH AND CHESTNUT DORIS "THE UNDERSTUDY CAPITOL EIGHTH AND MARKET Norma Talmadge "SAFETY CURTAIN"

GLOBE

CASINOBIG JAMBOREE

POPULAR Vaudeville POPULAR PRICES

Here Is How You Do It

- 1-Dissolve a package of Pen-Jel in 2 cups of blackberry or any fruit juice or juice diluted with water, as you please.
- 2-Bring to a quick boil.
- 3-Add one pound of granulated sugar, and boil 2 to 6 minutes until jelly test is obtained.
- 4-Pour into your jelly tumblers and you will have from 5 to 6 6-ounce glasses of clear, firm, pure jelly.

See Recipe Booklet in Package of PEN-JEL for Making Jam

Makes The Jelly Jell NEVER FAILS

PEN-JEL is pure cane sugar, pure fruit pectin, and tartness in exactly the correct proportions to "Make the Jelly Jell."

PEN-JEL is not a liquid. It cannot spoil. You can use part of a earton of PEN-JEL and the remainder will keep indefinitely.

PEN-JEL contains no animal gelatin or any animal product whatso-of any fruit juices in a few minutes. It saves time, sugar, fuel, work, worry and fruit. Order today a package of PEN-JEL of your Pennsylvania Sugar Co.

Pen-Jel Division Philadelphia, Pa.

